ADVISORY REGARDING RECRUITMENT

1. The school hereby advises all applicants that recruitment, whether on a regular or contractual basis, is conducted strictly through a fair, transparent, and merit-based selection process in accordance with the school's prescribed recruitment procedures as per Sainik School Society Rules and Regulations.
2. Applicants are advised not to make or entertain any payment, gift, favour, or other form of consideration in connection with recruitment. The school does not authorize any individual, agent, intermediary, or third party to seek or accept money, assurances, or promises of employment on its behalf.
3. Applicants are advised that all official communications related to the recruitment process will be published in National Newspapers(Amar Ujala), the Employment News, and further details on the School's official website at www.ssghorakhal.org. For any clarification regarding the recruitment process, candidates may contact the School at 05942-220051 or 05942-220045. Any telephonic communication concerning recruitment will originate only from these authorized telephone numbers.
4. Any person claiming to influence the recruitment process, secure employment, or demanding money or any other favour in exchange for recruitment is making false and unauthorized representations. Applicants are advised to disregard such claims and immediately verify the authenticity of any communication directly with the school through its official contact details before taking any action.
5. This advisory is issued in the interest of ensuring transparency, fairness, and integrity in the recruitment process. All applicants are expected to remain vigilant and cooperate in preventing fraudulent or unethical practices associated with recruitment.
